Period of limitation

In accordance with the provisions of Articles L114-1 of the Insurance Code, all actions arising from a contract of insurance are time-barred 2 years after the date of the event giving rise to the action.

However, this period will only start to run:

1 In the case of concealment, omission, false or inaccurate provision of information in respect of the risk to be covered: from the date the Insurer becomes aware of the event;

2 In the case of an event giving rise to a claim: only from the day on which the interested parties become aware of it, if they prove that they have ignored it until then.

When the action of the Insured against the Insurer results from a claim by a third party, the statutory limitation period shall only start to run from the day upon which that party has taken legal action through the courts against the Insured or has been compensated by the latter.

The statutory limitation period is extended to ten years in contracts of insurance against accidents to the persons where the Beneficiaries are the legal heirs of the deceased Insured.

The statutory limitation period is interrupted by one of ordinary causes of limitation period interruption, namely by:

- any court summons, including interim proceedings, any court order to pay or seizure, served on the person seeking to invoke the statutory limitation periods in an attempt to prevent him from so doing;
- any unequivocal recognition by the Insurer of the Insured's right to receive insurance benefits,
- or any recognition of debt by the Insured in favour of the Insurer;
- as well as in the other following cases provided for under article L114-2 of the Insurance Code:
 - any designation of an expert following an event giving rise to a claim;
- the sending of a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt by:
 - the Insurer to the Insured for non-payment of premium;
 - the Insured to the Insurer for payment of the insurance benefit.

As an exception to article 2254 of the Civil Code, the parties to an insurance contract may not, even by mutual agreement, either change the duration of the statutory limitation periods, nor add to the grounds for suspension or interruption of the same.
